

კულტურულ ურთიერთობათა ცენტრი

კავკასიური
სახლი

THE CENTRE FOR CULTURAL RELATIONS

CAUCASIAN
HOUSE

CATALOGUE OF PUBLICATIONS

www.caucasianhouse.ge www.regional-dialogue.com

Affordable Healthcare for Residents of Georgia's Occupied Territories: Achievements and Challenges

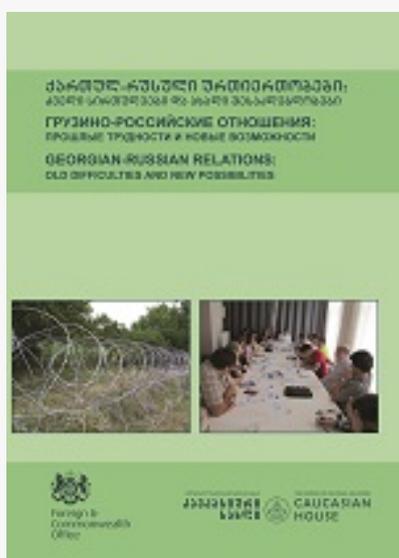

Publ. Date: 2013

ISBN: -

Tags: health care, occupied territories, south Ossetia

The policy paper analyses the effectiveness of the referral program. The publication contains recommendations for the relevant executive and legislative bodies as well as local and international organizations

Download full text

Georgian – Russian Relations: Old Difficulties and New Possibilities

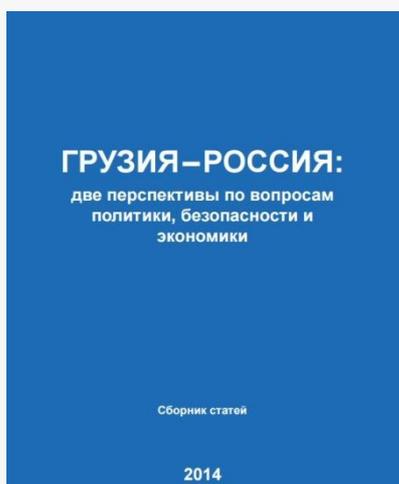

Publ. Date: 2013

ISBN: 978-9441-400-94-0

Tags: Georgian-Russian Dialogue, Russia, Georgia

The policy paper captures a whole range of problems existing in Georgian-Russian relations. It was prepared by Georgian participants of the project through tight consultations with Russian counterparts.

Download full text

Georgia-Russia: Two Perspectives on Politics, Security and Economy

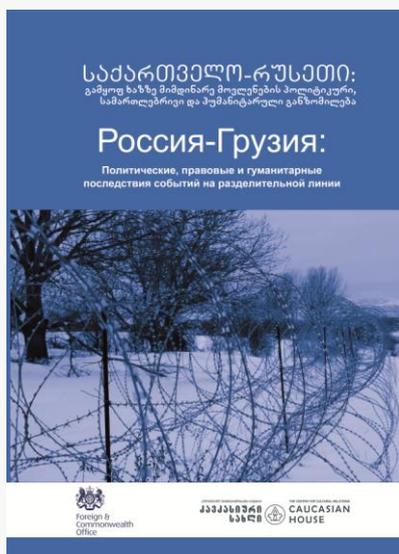

Publ. Date: 2014

ISBN: 978-9941-400-71-1

Tags: security, economy, Georgian-Russian dialogue

The publication is a collection of articles written by Georgian and Russian mid-career professionals about Georgian-Russian relations and other related topics.

Download full text

Georgia-Russia: Political, Legal and Humanitarian Setbacks of the Events at the Dividing Line

Publ. Date: 2014

ISBN: 978-9941-400-70-4

Tags: Georgian-Russian dialogue

The publication gives an outstanding description and explanation of the situation at the Georgian-South Ossetian administrative boundary line. The paper has been prepared as a result of several field-visits to the boundary line and meetings with various local and international governmental bodies in Tbilisi.

Download full text

Georgia's EU Integration Agenda and Normalization Process with Russia

Publ. Date: 2014

ISBN: 978-9941-400-73-5

Tags: Georgia, EU, European Integration

The publication analyses Georgia's European path and the Georgian-Russian normalization process following the Vilnius Summit. The paper is comprised of two independent chapters where the Georgian and Russian analysts in their individual capacities analyze separately the Georgian and Russian perspectives of the topic of research.

Download full text

Problems of Kvemo Kartli and Samtske-Javakheti and Foreign Policy Preferences of the Local Populations

Publ. Date: 2014

ISBN: 978-9941-400-75-9

Tags: Kvemo kartli, Samtskhe-Javakheti

This paper discusses the basic problems of the regions populated by ethnic minorities, and the attitudes of the local population towards Georgia's foreign policy. The research was conducted in two cities, Marneuli and Akhalkalaki. Interviewed respondents are representatives of local non-governmental organizations, the business sector, the media, religious institutions, political parties and local government. The study revealed the main factors that affect the formation of the foreign policy priorities of the respondents.

Download full text

Treaty „On Alliance and Strategic Partnership” Between Russia and Abkhazia: Contextual Analysis

Publ. Date: 2015
ISBN: 978-9941-400-81-0
Tags: Russia, Abkhazia

This paper discusses the Treaty on Alliance and Strategic Partnership between the Russian Federation and Abkhazia signed on 24 November 2014. The paper provides analysis of the initial and final versions of the Treaty, as well as describes counter reactions in Georgia and Abkhazia and the political context of signing the agreement.

Download full text

Georgia’s policy towards North Caucasus during 2008-2012 and after: comparative analysis

Publ. Date: 2015
ISBN: 978-9941-400-79-7
Tags: North Caucasus, Georgia

The goal of this paper is to examine and evaluate the strategy on the North Caucasus during 2008-2012 as well as the current situation in this regard. The paper provides cost-benefit analysis of some of the policy components implemented from 2008 until 2012.

Download full text

Georgian-Russian economic relations after Georgia’s joining The DCFTA and the establishment of the Eurasian Union

Publ. Date: 2015
ISBN: 978-9941-400-80-3
Tags: DCFTA, EU, Georgia, Russia

With a view to the existing conflict situation between Georgia and Russia since 2011, “The Centre for Cultural Relations – Caucasian House” began to actively work towards peace-building between the Georgian and Russian societies. This process unites several components, including the young Georgian and Russian analysts’ research, working visits to Georgia and the Russian Federation, meetings with representatives of both countries government agencies and experts, a common webpage and more.

Download full text

Russian-Ukrainian Conflict – Possibilities for De-escalation Collection of analytical works

Publ. Date: 2015
ISBN: 978-9941-400-87-2
Tags: Ukraine, Russia

How to name the March 04 events in Crimea? What is the nature of the confrontation in Donbass? Anti-terroristic operation, war or local conflict? Who are leaders of so called DPR and LPR? Militias, separatists or terrorists? This is only a shortlist of issues around which hot discussions are flaring between Russian and Ukrainian experts.

Download full text

Ukraine's Strategy for Building Relations with the Population of Crimea and Donbass. Lessons Learnt from Georgia for Ukraine

Publ. Date: 2015
ISBN: 978-9941-400-83-4
Tags: Ukraine, Crimea, Donbass, Georgia

Already for more than a year, the international community's agenda has been dominated by the issue of settling the conflict between Ukraine and Russia. For the first time since world war II, one state has annexed part of the territory of another state. for the first time the newly created term, "hybrid war" has entered the international relations discourse. for the first time the world faces the large-scale use of misleading terms, and cynical falsification of facts.

Download full text

Economic Reforms: Market Liberalization VS Social Responsibility Lessons Learnt from Georgia for Ukraine

Publ. Date: 2014
ISBN: 978-9941-400-82-7
Tags: Ukraine, Georgia

Since September 2014, within the frameworks of the project Ukraine – Out of Crisis through Dialogue, three working visits of Ukrainian experts and journalists to Georgia were organized, to study positive and negative aspects of Georgian reforms. In addition, three round tables were held, with the participation of experts from Ukraine, Georgia, Russia, EU countries. As a result, participants of project prepared several analytical materials.

Download full text

Russo-Ukrainian Reset Scenarios for the Development of Bilateral Relations

Publ. Date: 2015
ISBN: 978-9941-86-5
Tags: Ukraine, Russia

The following document is a result of joint efforts by Ukrainian and Russian experts. Overcoming their differences in views regarding the reasons and nature of the conflict, they tried to elaborate a common vision vis-a-vis the future of Ukrainian-Russian relations, more particularly, in terms of how to avoid inter-ethnic hostility between the two nations

Download full text

EURO-ATLANTIC SKEPTICISM IN GEORGIAN CIVIL AND POLITICAL SPACE

Publ. Date: 2015
ISBN: 978-9941-400-88-9
Tags: European integration, Georgia, Euroscepticism

The report is divided into three major parts. The first part describes the ideological bases of researched political parties, civil society groups and NGO's; second part focuses on the participation of selected actors in foreign policy making, while in the third part, analysis of alternative visions and skeptical or/and critical attitudes held by the target groups will be presented.

Download full text

Contextualization of Ukrainian Crisis in Georgian Political Space

Publ. Date: 2015
ISBN: -
Tags: Ukraine, Georgia, political space

The aim of the document is to analyze Ukrainian crisis in the context of Georgian Political Environment, taking into account the main tendencies and the streams of current political thought.

Download full text

CONFLICTS IN GEORGIA: ongoing challenges and ways to solution

Publ. Date: 2015

ISBN: -

Tags: Georgia, conflict resolution, international community

The purpose of the document is not just to offer specific recommendations to relevant parties, but rather to suggest new approaches or to turn public attention to overlooked issues related to conflict resolution, and to imitate professional and public debates around such issues.

Download full text

RUSSIA'S GEORGIAN DIASPORA AND GEORGIAN-RUSSIAN RELATIONS

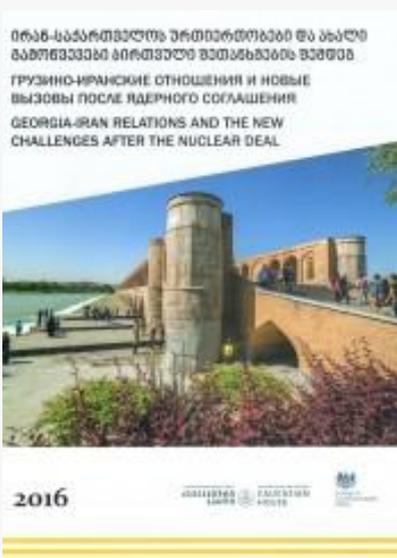

Publ. Date: 2016

ISBN: 978-9441-400-92-6

Tags: Georgia, Russia, diaspora

This report was prepared in 2015 based on the sociological study performed as part of the project 'Georgian-Russian relations for peace and cooperation'. The aim of the project was to study Georgian diaspora organisations in Russia through the analysis of their objectives, activities and institutional development.

Download full text

GEORGIA-IRAN RELATIONS AND THE NEW CHALLENGES AFTER THE NUCLEAR DEAL

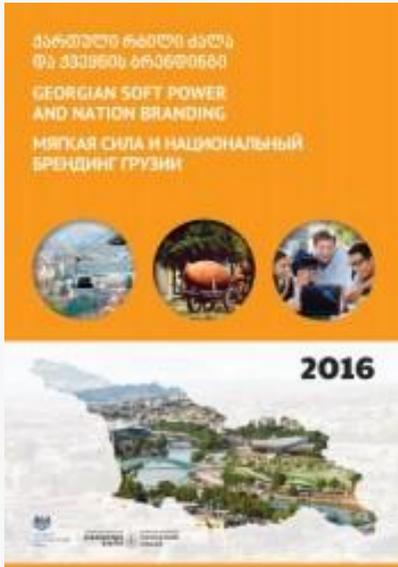

Publ. Date: 2016

ISBN: 978-9941-400-91-9

Tags: Georgia, Iran, research, nuclear deal

The paper discusses Georgian-Iran relations since 1991 and future prospects of cooperation after the Vienna Nuclear Deal. Perspectives for cooperation between the two countries are put in the context of balancing interests and influences of regional actors operating in Georgia

Download full text

GEORGIAN SOFT POWER AND NATION BRANDING

Publ. Date: 2016

ISBN: -

Tags: Georgia, Soft Power, Foreign Policy

The document aims to study the potential of Georgian soft power and its role in Georgian foreign policy. The document is based on the open sources, as of today, Georgia's soft power potential is yet to be explored and the country's policy in this direction bears largely fragmented character

Download full text